PREFACE.

Hampsthwaite is a large Parish and, being entirely agricultural, is somewhat thinly populated. It is situated in the Forest of Knaresbro' and in it were included the townships of Hampsthwaite, Birstwith, Fallisclifffe, Menwith-with-Darley, and Thornthwaite-with-Padside. Birstwith, Darley, and Thornthwaite are now separated from the mother parish. The Church is dedicated to St. Thomas of Canterbury, and from 1257, by the gift of the Duke of Cornwall, the patronage fell into the hands of the House of St. Robert of Knaresbro', and remained so until the dissolution of the Monasteries. There was an ancient Chapel at Thornthwaite, but no Register Books were kept there; Marriages were celebrated at Hampsthwaite, and Baptisms and Burials occurring here were entered in the Hampsthwaite Registers.

In this volume are to be found the contents of the seven earliest Register Books. They commence in 1603, and contain the Marriages down to 1807, and the Baptisms and Burials to 1794. There is a gap in the Marriages between 1630 and 1637, and again between the latter year and 1653. There is no record of any Burials occurring in 1607, two only are recorded in 1608, and they are defective between 1644 and 1653. The Burials for the years 1661 to 1678 are out of place, they have been stitched into the earliest volume instead of the second; in printing, however, they have been placed in their proper chronological order.

The Vicar, the Rev. H. J. Peck, has been most kind in giving the transcriber every facility in his power to perfect his work, and for this he begs, both on his own account and in the name of the Society, to offer him sincere thanks. There is another person to whom the Society is greatly indebted, the late Bishop of Oxford. So much interested was he in this Parish, that only a few months before his death he gave a very handsome donation towards the printing of this volume, and though the transcript of each volume of the Registers was forwarded for his inspection, when finished, it was to the great regret of the transcriber that this great and good man should have passed away before the whole was completed. His works are too well known to require any allusion to them here, but of him, in private life, it may be said that it was a privilege to be honoured with its friendship, or even his acquaintanceship. There was a charm in his manner, and with it a modesty, that none could fail in recognising; to know him was to love him, and to loose him was to feel that one had been taken away from amongst his friends whose place can never be refilled.
